

While I Was in the Act of Calling Upon God (Tenor Solo)

Text: Josphe Smith History 1:30-34
Music: Francis Acland

Moderato

Tenor Solo

8

mp

While I was in the act of call-ing u-pon God, I dis-

7

8

mp

7

cov-ered a light a-ppear-ing in my room, - which con-tin-ued to-in-crease un-til the 13

8

mp

13

room was-light-er than at noon-day, when imm-

19
8 ed - i - ate - ly a per - son age a - ppeared at my bed - side, stan - ding in the

25
8 air. He called me by name, and said un - to me that he was an

25

31
8 mess - en - ger sent from the pres - ence of God, and that his

31

37
8 name was Mo - ro - ni; that God had a work for me to do.

43
8 He said that there was a book de - pos - i - ted writt - en up -

49
8 on gold plates, giv - ing an acc - ount of the form - er in -

55
8 hab - i - tants of this cont - i - net and the source from which they sprang. That the

61
8 ful - ness of the ev - er - last - ing Gos - pel was con - tained in it, as de - liv - ered

61

67
8 by the Sa - viour to the an - cient in - hab - i - tants.

67